An interested and interesting person who has been "absorbing atmosphere" at The Press office is Alice Enderton, who leaves with with her family for Germany next Tuesday. They will join Alice's father, Col. H. B. Enderton in Amburg, where he is stationed. When they are settled Alice, who is 13, and her sister, Ann, 15, plan on starting a small newspaper for circulation among the Army families. The paper should be a huge success for both girls are energetic, capable and full of enthusiasm for the project. I hope they will send The Campbell Press a copy of their first issue.

Industrial Zoning In Offing

As soon as the public hearings on the proposed zoning changes are held, the Southern Pacific railway will begin to actively interest industrialists in the newly-available sites in Campbell. Albert Pucinelli, who will operate the new dehydrator to be built on Hamilton Ave. when the zoning changes are approved, has been informed that the railroad, always in close contact with expanding industries, wishes to be informed of the progress of the zoning changes.

The two hearings on the proposed changes will be July 17 at 2:30 and August 21 at 2:30.

Concerted action by interested Campbell residents has resulted in the proposed amendments which will result in the rezoning of property along the railroad for industry. A petition for industrial spot zoning which was appealed to the Board of Supervisors was the beginning of the larger plan backed by the Campbell Taxpayers' Association and the Chamber of Commerce.

To be reclassified from an R-2 zone to an M-1 zone is the property commencing at a point on the east bank of Los Gatos Creek at junction with south side of Hamilton Avenue. Thence west to a point 600 feet west of railway tracks. Thence turning southwest at an angle of 115 degrees to a point 1,000 feet from Campbell Avenue and 150 feet from Harrison Avenue. Thence to Harrison Avenue, and turning south to Campbell Avenue. Along south side of Campbell Avenue to east side of First Street; along First Street to west side of railway tracks. West along south side of Kennedy Avenue to Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road. Along east side of Los Gatos-Santa Clara Road to Pollard Avenue. East across railway tracks to east side of Los Gatos Creek, follow north along east side of creek to junction with Dry Creek. Along south side of Dry Creek to west side of Union Avenue and following due north along dotted line on map to east side of creek, thence along east side of creek to place of commencement.

Summer Dresses To Be Modeled

Summer Dresses To Be Modeled

A gala afternoon is planned at "Rachel's" on Saturday, due to the arrival of a shipment of dresses which Miss Spradling terms "unusually large and attractive for these times". Modeling the new summer dresses in the shop between the hours of two and four, will be Miss Carol Price and Mrs. Robert Boysol. Both models participated in Rachel's spring style show at the Library Hall.

Bude Little Resigns

Due to ill health, Bude H. Little, minister of the Church of Christ, has resigned his position as pastor of the church. He will continue to live in Campbell and will be available in emergencies. Taking his place temporarily will be M. S. Gabbard of San Jose.

Last Sunday members of the church held a picnic in the Los Gatos park following services and presented Mr. and Mrs. Little with a set of silver.

Mr. Little recently returned from a trip which included business and pleasure stops in Southern California, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Utah and Nevada. While in Cedar Point, Utah, he was the guest preacher at the Church of Christ there.

Weekend Guests

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Levenberg were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graziano of Merced. The Levenberg's son, Kerry, is convalescing from a severe case of measles.

Fire Destroys Randall Home

An overheated water heater was believed to have caused the fire which, late Saturday afternoon destroyed the home occupied by Mr. and Mrs. "Tex" Randall and their family.

The small house on S. Winchester Road, adjacent to Jones Service Station, is behind the garage leased by Randall, and while working he noticed flames in the house. Believing one of their boarders to be asleep in the bedroom, he rushed in to rescue her and received severe burns on his arms. The house was occupied as the boarder had gone to the store, Mrs. Randall and their baby daughter were in San Jose, and the Randall's 9-year-old son was at the movies.

During the excitement of the fire, Mrs. Fred Jones, who was walking toward the fire with Miss Pat Whitemore, was struck by a car which was being backed out of the way of the fire engines. Although badly bruised, it is believed that she is not seriously injured.

Firemen prevented the blaze from spreading to adjacent buildings, but the home and its contents were a total loss, which Fire Chief Jack Scott set at $5000. Randall did not carry insurance on his furniture, and since all their possessions, including clothes, were destroyed, the Red Cross was notified of their predicament.

Randall leads a hill-billy band as well as operating a garage. The house was leased from Joseph Guardino of San Jose, and the site was the scene several years ago of a similar fire.

Campbell To Have Farm Labor Office

To serve ranchers of the district during the apricot season, Joseph Santana, manager of the Farm Labor Office (Agricultural Extension Service), has announced that a branch Farm Labor Office will be opened in Campbell on Monday.

Located at the junction of the Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road and Hamilton Ave., in a former filling station, the new office will serve as a labor clearing house for ranchers in the Campbell and Los Gatos area. Termed an "emergency" office, it is expected to close at the end of the apricot season.

Mrs. Josephine Decke, an experienced worker for the Agricultural Extension Service, will be in charge of the office and asks that all ranchers who will be needing pickers and cutters, register at the office now.

Any person interested in working either full time or part time during the harvest is urged to register with Mrs. Decker at the office.

No children under 12 are permitted to work on the ranches, but children over 12, who have work permits, may register. These permits may be obtained from their school principals, and schools are being kept open during the morning to enable children to secure them.

Indiana Visitors

Mrs. Faye Parr Arnold from Indianapolis, Indiana, is visiting her brother, Kenneth H. Parr and his family of 47 Empey Way, and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Hoyt of Rt. 2, Box 266, Campbell.

Campbell Scouts Build Bridge at Yosemite Park

Sixteen members of Boy Scout Troop No. 36 returned last week after an 11-day camping trip in Yosemite National Park. They were accompanied on their trip by R. Herschbach, Scoutmaster, who directed their activities, which included doing all their own cooking as well as the necessary chores connected with camping.

The troop was selected by park officials as the subject for photographs to be used in Yosemite Park literature which will be sent all over the country under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior.

Many of the photographs which depict the boys in the routine of their outdoor life against the background of the park beauty will be used also in Boys' Life, the Boy Scout magazine.

An unexpected thrill for the boys was the presence in the park of Red Skelton who was interested in the troop's accomplishments there.

Visiting the troop for five days each were William Wiesendanger and John Sisemore, two troop committeemen.

Troop 36 was formed in the Moreland district in 1943 with an original membership of eight boys under the direction of L. L. Miller, Scoutmaster. During the General Eisenhower Boy Scout paper drive, the troop distinguished itself by winning General Eisenhower medals.

Now having a membership of 19, the troop has won awards steadily in Scout contests and ranks high in Santa Clara Valley scouting.

Campbell Man Killed In Car Crash

Early last evening Frank Mattier, 148 Dillon Avenue, was killed when his southbound auto crashed into the rear of another car making a left turn onto Fruitvale Ave. off the San Jose-Los Gatos Road. Driver of the other car who was uninjured was Sam Pressenda of Cupertino.

Mattier's death was the first fatality reported in the County which anticipates a high death rate during the approaching holiday weekend.

New Boundaries Set For Proposed Incorporation

Since the concensus of opinion at the Campbell Taxpayers' Association favored smaller boundaries than those first suggested for the proposed incorporation of Campbell, members of the executive committee have drawn up new boundaries. They encompass an area of approximately three and three-quarters square miles.

In the event that any of the subdivisions excluded by the new boundaries would wish to join the incorporated area they might do so by petitioning.

The newly defined area is as follows: Commencing at a point on Los Gatos-San Jose Highway on the south bank of the creek north of Hamilton Avenue; proceeding west and south along east bank of creek to within 200 feet of north side of Hamilton Avenue; turning west on Hamilton Avenue to east bank of San Tomas Creek; thence due south on east bank of creek, following creek across Campbell and Rincon Avenues to 200 feet west of Virginia Avenue; turn due south following a straight line to 200 feet beyond south side of Pollard Avenue; thence due east, crossing Los Gatos Road and railway tracks to east bank of Los Gatos Creek; follow east bank of creek to Dry Creek; thence along east bank of Dry Creek across San Jose-Los Gatos Road to 1400 feet beyond east side of road; turning due north in a straight line, crossing Hamilton Avenue to east bank of creek; thence southwest on east bank of creek to place of commencement.

The executive board of the Taxpayers' Association are anxious to have suggestions concerning the boundaries and urge that interested residents write to The Press or to the secretary of the organization at Box 233. Since the group expects to submit plans to the County Board of Supervisors within the next few weeks, suggestions must be made without delay.

A map showing the proposed boundaries is now on display in The Press windows.

Summer Recreation Program

At a meeting of the Youth Council Tuesday evening it was voted to employ another playground assistant to help Miss Mary Louise Blair, who now averages 50 children at the summer playground at the high school.

The summer recreation program, under the direction of Dean Close, is now in full swing with members of The Roost, Campbell's youth group, enjoying swimming parties every Monday evening. Ping pong games now rank high in the group's divertments and the tennis tournament is scheduled to begin July 15. Also planned for the near future are Saturday night dances.

Representatives from 18 Campbell organizations attended the meeting of the Youth Council headed by Herbert Shadle and Art Tindall and discussed at length Close's suggestion that all-year recreational program be instituted.

One of the Council's most serious problem is financing the summer youth program since the amount allowed by the Community Chest does not cover all expenses. Additional funds will be needed and Tindall made the suggestion that groups and organizations who have had their last meetings for the season could contribute through their executive boards.

Dr. John Mott To Practice Here

A new addition to the Campbell medics is Dr. John M. Mott, who has taken offices in the Curry Building and will carry on a general practice. Dr. Mott, whose offices are being newly decorated, will share a reception room with Dr. Gabe Long.

Now on terminal leave, the new doctor served in the Army as a captain in the medical corps and was a member of the General Hospital staff in England for 14 months. He later served with the 91st Division in Italy.

A graduate of Stanford University, Dr. Mott served his interneship at the Stanford Hospital.

Kiwanis Hold Inter-Club Meet

Members of the Campbell Kiwanis Club met Tuesday, July 2, with the Palo Alto club with Dick Armstrong of the Palo Alto group acting as chairman. A good chorus was formed by the eleven visiting members and "Passing By", "Stein Song", "When My Caravan Has Rested" and "Soumi's Song" were sung by the group. Piano and vocal solos, and cartooning completed the program.

Visitors were Court Spotswood of the Los Gatos club, Bert Rudloph and Chet Bartlett of San Jose club, and guest was LBen Howard of Campbell.

Next week Budd Levenberg wil be chairman and Mickey Carter will show slides of Guatemala.

Lanphears Plan Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Lanphear will leave this week for a long vacation which will take them as far north as Washington. Lanphear says they are planning a "browsing" trip. During their absence, Lanphear's constable duties will be handled by the county sheriff's office.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank my staff for the excellent publication they produced during my absence last week.

EDITORIAL

The OPA crisis is one of those events in human history which puts responsibility squarely on the individual and these individuals react according to their separate characters.

As a friend remarked, it is the perfect time to apply the golden rule and to hope that others do also.

Our faith in human nature was richly rewarded by the merchants in our own community who staunchly maintained their prices at the previous ceilings and by the property owners who declared they had no intention of raising rents.

Letter to the Editor

The Future of Campbell

Dear Editor:

It is absolutely necessary for every citizen of Campbell to realize that we are now passing through a critical period. For years we have been content to go along with the tide, floating to the unknown, without thought of whether we are being swept towards disaster or success. Now we are very forcefully reminded that unless we make some supreme efforts towards self preservation, we shall be dashed against the rocks of oblivion. All around us are unmisakably signs of progress, and if we only grasp the opportunity presented to us, we can secure a bright and flourishing future for our declining years, and the coming years of our descendants. Some of us may perhaps not live to see the glorious results, but what a satisfaction it will be to know we have been instrumental in framing the golden era.

The future is fraught with difficulties and problems, and it is our duty to select men of understanding and ability to guide our destiny.

The people of Campbell have approved of steps being taken towards incorporation. Before anything can be done a tremendous amount of work must be undertaken. This must be supervised by men who have no ulterior motives—men of sound principles and business ability. Where are we to look for them? It always has been, and always will be, that in times of emergency some individual is found to cope successfully with the situation. The men who have unofficially ruled Campbell in the past have not lived up to the standard required of them, but within the last three months others have arisen who are proving their true worth. What have they done for Campbell. In less than three months they have secured a promise from the Pacific Telephone Co., that telephone charges will be reduced within 60 days. This in itself is an achievement to be proud of. But that is not all. In spite of the strongest opposition they have won the fight for industrial zoning, and within a short time we shall be having new industries here, providing extra employment for residents, and ensuring increased business for our tradesmen.

The complete plannnig for the future Campbell is being worked out to meet the probable requirements not for tomorrow, but for 20 years hence.

All this is being done gratuitously by men who were almost unknown to Campbell residents three months back. All they ask in return is that you—the people—support their efforts. If you are unable to do the actual work, surely it is not too much to ask that you contribute a little to the necessary expense. Join the Campbell Taxpayers' Association today. To become a member it is only necessary to forward your membership to the secretary, P. O. Box 233, Campbell, and attend the meetings as often as possible. It will more than repay you.

COURT FEUDS OLD STORY

WASHINGTON — Some people seem to be laboring under the impressions that wrangles are now in the Supreme Court. Actually, wrangling began soon after the court was formed, with the attempted impeachment of Justice Canual Chase, continued vigorously under John Marshall and has flared up intermittently ever since.

Latest wrangle, prior to the Jackson blow-up, was between amiable Chief Justice Harlan Fiske Stone and austere Justice Owen J. Roberts. Although Republicans and Hooven appointees, they did not get along well in recent years, and there was one hot, through private argument betwen them over the question of sitting on a case involving Stone's former law firm.

Before that, however, the most virulent feud on the Supreme Court revolved around crancky, crusty Justice James C. McReynolds, the only justice credited with driving an associate off the court. For six years Justice John H. Clarke sat beside him, and for six years McReynolds never spoke. Finally Clarke resigned.

McReynolds also tried to drive the late Justice Louis D. Brandeis off the bench. He would rattle his papers or even leave the bench when Brandeis rendered an opinion. And, when the jurists adjourned for their customary sandwich or soup and crackers at the noon recess, Mc Reynolds turned up his nose at lunching at a table with Brandeis. Instead, he duffed his robe, drove downtown and lunched by himself.

Another bitter battle inside the Supreme Court took place during the Grant administration over the legal tender act. Justice Robert C. Grier, then senile, was induced by Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase to change his vote, thereby helping to make the legar tender act unconstitutional. This was a great embarrasment to the Republicans, who needed the legal tender act to support their fiscal policies during and after the Civil War.

"The chief justice," charged Justice Samuel F. Miller, "resorted to all sorts of strategems of the lowest trickery."

LINCOLN SPANKED JUSTICE

Another period of near-civil war took place in the court after the last war, when the nine justices were called upon to pass on the espionage cases. The court was so split, that a committee, including Justices Willis Van Devanter and William R. Day called on Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes to ask that he not write one of his usual usual vigorous dissenting opinions.

"You know what my ideas of the law are, and I will not change them," he replied. And for some months following this, the justices stopped speaking to each other.

Probably the most vitriolic criticism ever leveled against the court by anyone in high places came from Abraham Lincoln, when Chief Justice Roger B. Taney called upon the commanding officer at Fort McHenry in Baltimore to relinquish a prisoner during the Civil War. This the commanding general refused to do.

"The judicial machinery," remarked Lincoln at the time, "sems as if it had been designed not to sustain the government but to embarrass and betray it."

FEUD OVER JUSTICE FIELD

There was also the court feud over Justice Stephen J. Field at the time the Supreme Court declared the income tax law unconstitutional in 1895. Field, then nearly 80 years old, led the attack against the income tax. Senile, and frequently asleep in court, a committee of his colleagues suggested his retirement, but he only flew into a tantrum. His vote against the income tax made it necessary to pass a constitutional amendment to make the income tax legal.

EVERYBODY GETS HIS

Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma introduced an amendment to the OPA bill removing price ceilings on timber, petroleum, cotton, milk, livestock, tobacco, poultry, fish, grain, fruits and vegetables.

This caused Connecticut's Senator Brien McMahon to remark:

"You can't beat that one. Elmer's got something in there for every member of the Senate."

In this case, though, the amendment was beaten.

HELL-BENT FOR INFLATION

Despite all the confusing furore of the Senate OPA debate, two things definitely stand out: (1) when price controls are removed, prices rise; (2) most senators are far more susceptible to the pressure of business lobbies than to the unorganized but overwhelming demand of the American public in favor of price control.

Florida oranges were selling for $3.85 when price controls were removed. Immediately they jumped to $4.47, and then to $5.45.

Housed in the Tiny Shop and also attractively arranged in the big house are many treasures of the past . . . old glass, furniture, quaint lamps and silver. The lover of antiques will be richly rewarded and will enjoy the delightfully appropriate atmosphere in which they are displayed.

Have you often wondered why some women's lipstick looked so much better than others? The secret lies in a lipstick brush which smooths the lipstick on evenly and perfectly. At the Campbell Pharmacy they have two types . . . either one designed to make you more glamorous. One, produced by Merl Berns of Hollywood is called "Sable-Glo" . . . the other, a Martha Lorraine creation, is called the "Acrobat", because it can be folded into such a compact shape . . . perfect to fit into a small handbag.

Among the hard-to-get items is charcoal, and the Campbell Hardware Co. has ben very fortunate in securing some . . . just at the right time for barbecue parties . . . nothing, the gourmands say, give a steak the delicious flavor that charcoal broiling does . . . so you'd better hurry before it's all snatched up by the barbecue pit chefs.

Just when you think you've seen everything, something new comes along . . . The What Not has what seem to be magic candles. They are called Magi-golor drip candles and, although plain white, surprises you by dripping many colors. They are most effective when burned in bottles or containers with wide or full bases, thus creating an effect similar to stalagmites and stalactites of many hues, such as are found in the worlds' famous caverns . . . also new are "pepper tree" candles . . . they are squat white candles decorated with pepper berries and pepper tree foliage. Then there are scented candles made in the shape of oranges, rosebuds, lotus blossoms and cones—redwood, cedar, myrtlewood and pine.

Four-Day Celebration

With an overflow crowd at the first day's showing of the daily rodeo, Redwood City was prepared to handle additional throngs as it continued its four-day seventh annual Fourth of July Rodeo and celebration. The big event, largest in this city's history, continues today, tomorrow and Sunday, with a rodeo each afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Freckled Anne Crowley, 20, of Belmont, led the opening day's parade at 11 a. m., having won a popularity contest to select a queen of the celebration.

Last night a $1000 display of fireworks illuminated the sky over Redwood City, and throngs danced at the first of three free street dances. During the day, thousands enjoyed themselves at a score of concessions operated by civic organizations, and kiddies had free pony rides through the afternoon.

The same program continues each day, with an amateur contest at 7:30 o'clock tonight and tomorrow.

Some 200 cowboys from over the West are competing for the $2800 in rodeo prize money. A horse parade in the downtown district at 12:30 p. m. will open the festivities each day, with the celebration coming to a close Sunday at 6 p. m.

Graduates With Distinction

Graduating with distinction from San Jose State College was Miss Eleanor McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. O. McConnell, San Jose-Los Gatos Road.

Motorcycle Hill Climbing Planned

Sports fans who like their entertainment packed with plenty of thrills and danger will get just such a serving when the San Jose Motorcycle club holds its gigantic hill climbing program at Vogle's Ranch, Hall's Valley, Mt. Hamilton Road, on Sunday, July 14.

First motorcycle hill climb held locally since 1941, this gigantic program will bring together two of the Nation's top cycle experts, Sam Arena, veteran San Jose rider and holder of practically all racing honors on the Pacific Coast, and Woody Lindstrom.

Lindstrom, past national hill-climbing champion, will find stiff opposition when he goes up against Arena. Both riders have "hot" cycles and will be favored to vie with each other for honors. A total entry list of at least 25 cyclists is anticipated, it was indicated by Carl Roessler, president of the San Jose Motorcycle club, sponsors of the event.

Five events are slated for the afternoons' program, including climbs for both novice and expert riders. Riders for events are listed according to cubic inch capacity.

Hall's Valley is located on the Mt. Hamilton Road, seven miles up from Alum Rock Avenue.

Do You Just Keep Chickens?

At this time of the year poultrymen think about culling the laying flock, an operation of so much more importance in this year of high priced feed. Close scrutiny of the laying flock now will spot the birds which are shelling out the eggs and the ones that are coasting on your high priced feed.

M. S. Beckley, of the local Agricultural Extension Service, suggests culling pullets before they begin to lay is a good way to save feed, too.

Segregate the pullets into three groups, early, medium, and late, based on the rate of growth and time of maturity. Records have been kept by poultrymen which show that 19 per cent of the pullets fell in the late-maturing group. They had failed to grow and develop properly—small, runty, pale and backward things. In many cases this was caused by crowding. Other cases of slow development were caused by diseases and parasites. The records show the birds in this class averaged only 121 eggs for the year and mortality of 42.6 per cent.

This means that nearly one-fifth of all the pullets raised in California this year will fail to show profit above feed and labor. Newlon suggests that kind of chickens might be good to keep, but they won't keep you.

It is going to take a big, husky, long-backed, and strong-bodied pullet to show a profit in the months ahead. If they do not measure up to that yardstick at six months of age, sell them at once.

The Extension Service office in San Jose, 201 Post Office Building, has a chart that will help you select and cull out your flock—giving characteristics to look for and monthly information to help you segregate your chickens from month to month. Field demonstrations can be arranged for the month of July by calling M. S. Beckley at Columbia 3866.

Poems Written By Diana Weeks

Miss Diana Meeks, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Schluter, was released from the Wacs early this year and is at present in Campbell. She has written the group of nature poems which follow:

EVENTIDE

The breeze rustles the leaves on the trees
And murmurs low,
As the golden rays of the sun
Turn to a rosy glow.
The birds hush their song and to their nests fly,
As the first star shines forth, dimly on high.
The silence grows deeper as the stars become clear,
Now—all is well—peace reigns here.

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT

So Joyfully the bluebird sing to each other,
The violets peep, from under their cover.
The daffodils blow their trumpets, clear.
And the light winds whisper, "spring is here".

NATURE FANTASY

Across the sky,
Evening gently draws a gray blanket,
Edged with deepest rose;
Only to be flung away
By laughing sunbeams, on the morn.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Loveday, 16 Page Ave., was the scene last Sunday afternoon of a lovely home wedding when Miss Jeanne Farmer, daughter of L. E. Loveday, became the bride of Tony Akino of Santa Clara. The Rev. Lawrence Osborne performed the ceremony at 1:30.

For her wedding rites, the bride chose a blue suit with pink accessories complimented by a gardenia corsage. Her maid of honor, Miss Iva Burnett, was also attired in a blue suit with a corsage of tuberous begonias. Cecil Hughes served as best man.

A reception for relatives and friends followed the ceremony. Among the guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. Clara Corey; her grandmother, Mrs. Ota Loveday; her aunt, Mrs. Maud Smotherman; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGee and Mrs. Bertha Burnett.

The benedict who was recently released from the Army, will take his bride to a ranch near Campbell to live.

While in Alaska they visited the Mendenhall glacier at Juneau, Alaska, as well as other places of interest. Mrs. James reported that the five-day boat trip was calm and that the weather for the entire trip was lovely and warm.

Mr. and Mrs. James were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McPherson, Mrs. Pearl Gibson, Dora and Letty Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert of San Jose, and Miss Mary McCall of Berkeley, and Miss Virginia Sneed of Napa.

Piano Recital Is Success

By IRMA SANDERS

A most interesting recital was presented last Friday evening, June 28, by pupils from Kathleen S. Bergerons' Piano Studio for Children in Campbell, at the Country Woman's club room in the Library building.

A capacity audience was there and enthusiastically applauded the pupils from the youngest, aged 4, to the oldest, aged 13.

The pupils gave ample proof of a well-rounded musical education with solos, ensemble numbers, transposing, playing in reverse, and added accompaniments of their own making.

Mrs. Bergeron, who is a composer-teacher, encourages her pupils to compose and perhaps the most attractive part of the program was the playing from manuscript of original compositions written by some the pupils.

The apparent pleasure the pupils get out of doing all these things and the ease with which they play made an evening of enjoyment for both pupils and audience.

Certificates of merit were awarded the pupils at the close of the program. Mrs. Bergeron is a member of the Santa Clara County branch of The Music Teachers' Association of California and as such is entitled to award these certificates.

Sandra Howard was excellent as page girl presenting the program.

The club room was beautifully decorated with flowers generously donated by Mr. Robert Scholz, Mrs. Charlotte Sutter and Mrs. Betty Ward and were arranged by Mrs. Virginia Howard, Mrs. Tillie Robba, and Mrs. Betty Ward.

Camping Trip Concluded

Two carloads of vacationers returned Sunday evening after a 2654-mile camping trip which included Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon, both the south and north rims, Zion National Park, Bryce National Park, Cedar Breaks, Tonapah, Tyoga Pass and Yosemite National Park. Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shadle and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Husted of Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Miller, Los Gatos, and Ralph Husted of Saratoga.

Attend Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson and their daughter, Miss Elsa Fetch, motored to Berkeley Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Alberta Barker, well-known in Campbell, and J. T. Lovelace. On Sunday they were wedding guests again in Concord when Miss Dorothy Menfield, a WAC, with many Campbell friends, became the bride of Joseph Barth.

Entertain Pilgrim Fellowship

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Field entertained members of the Congregational Youth Fellowship at their home last Sunday evening. Miss Lorraine Wood led the meeting.

Veterans News

Veterans who intend to apply for guaranteed loans but who have lost their original copies of discharge, should take immediate steps to obtain substitutes in order to avoid delays and disappointments in negotiating the loans.

Veterans Administration loan officials say many veterans are arranging short time options to buy property only to find they are delayed beyond the option date because they can't produce their original discharges.

A veteran's loan may now be guaranteed automatically if the lending institution is satisfied that the individual is eligible on the basis of an honorable discharge certificate or separation order. The VA's bookkeeping and review of the case come later and do not hold up issuance of the money to the veteran.

However, if the veteran has no proof of his discharge, he must apply to his former branch of service for a certificate in lieu of discharge and then go to the VA for an eligibility certificate before a lending institution will consider him for a loan. Provided he produces evidence of the right kind of discharge, the VA can issue its certificate within six or seven days, the time it takes to establish a guarantee credit account in New York. However, it often takes as long as three months to obtain the substitute for a discharge.

Therefore, any veteran who anticipates applying for a loan guarantee is well advised to make certain he has his original discharge or to take steps to obtain a substitute far in advance of his needs.

Question: I have lost my discharge certificate. How do I go about getting another?

Answer: You will not get another original discharge certificate, but you may obtain a certificate "in lieu of discharge" by applying to your former service. The nearest Veterans Administration office will advise you in detail, or any Army Personal Affairs Office or Navy Readjustment Office can help you.

Q. Is a veteran who holds a bad conduct discharge entitled to any benefits under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (GI Bill)?

A. Since he holds neither an honorable nor a dishonorable discharge from the armed services, it would be necessary for him to contact his nearest VA office for a decision as to whether he was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. If he is found not to be eligible, he may apply to the Army or Navy for revision of discharge.

Club Makes Trip

Miss Helen Stray, Mrs. Ben Davidson and her sister, Miss Helen Starbuck were the three Campbell members of the Vagabond Club, San Jose Adult Education group, who enjoyed the recent excursion of the club. Thirty-five members made a three-day trip on a chartered bus to the Mother Lode country, Reno, Nevada City, Lake Tahoe and Donner Lake.

We are diligently concentrating..... on providing service to waiting applicants as fast as it is humanly possible to do so

Every effort is being made to improve the quality and efficiency of our service

Directing our efforts as we have to render service as rapidly as possible to all who want it and to make our service even better than it has ever been before, the 2,886,000 telephones in service as of May 31, 1946, include an increase of 254.000 since V-J Day, of which 183,000 were added in the first five months of this year—an unequaled increase in any similar time period in the history of our company.

The telephone increase since V-J Day exceeds by 67,000, or 36 per cent, the 187,000 increase in the year 1943—the largest yearly telephone increase ever recorded by our company. The telephone increase for the first five months of 1946 exceeds by 69,000, or 60 per cent, the 114,000 increase for the entire year 1945.

New applications for service—totaling 340,000 for the first five months of this year—increased 107 per cent over the corresponding period of a year ago. Of the 286,000 prospective subscribers at the first of the year whose applications had been necessarily deferred due to shortage of facilities, we are glad to report that 183,000, or 64 per cent, have been cared for. Due, however, to the time necessarily involved in the installation of complicated switchboards—in many instances new buildings are required to house them—together with the large number of new applications and the continued materials shortages and disturbed conditions throughout the country affecting manufacturers' production, 229,000 applicants are still waiting for service.

We are diligently concentrating, notwithstanding the difficulties in obtaining adequate apparatus and materials, on providing service to waiting applicants as fast as it is humanly possible to do so. Likewise every effort is being made to improve the quality and efficiency of our service.

Construction of additional toll and long distance circuits has gone forward with rapidity and continued improvement is being made in the service even though the volume continues at record high levels—the calls being 20 per cent greater than in the corresponding five-month period of a year ago.

Our company has recently made substantial further postwar increased wage adjustments, aggregating $6,000,000 on an annual basis, as a result of collective bargaining negotiations with the unions. These added wage increases are over and above the postwar adjustment wage increases made in December of last year which aggregated more than $18,000,000 on an annual basis. Thus, this recent wage increase, embodied in a contract to run until March 1, 1947, brings the postwar adjustment wage increases, arising out of collective bargaining, to more than $24,000,000 annually—the increase in our postwar wage rates being 19 per cent. The recent collective bargaining negotiations between our management and the unions extended over a period from April 24 to May 18, 1946, and at no time throughout the negotiations did the unions or the company fail to realize that the public interest came first . . . Net Income has been adversely affected by increased costs of operation, particularly the large added wage expenditures.

Johnson-McLaughlin Nuptials

Miss Joyce Evelyn McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McLaughlin, Route 2, Box 270, and Carol Ora Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora O. Johnson of Fiatt, Illinois, were united in marriage in the Methodist Episcopal church, on Sunday, June 30, at 4:00 p. m. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Lawrence J. Osborne.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white tailored suit with white accessories. Her hat was a pompon worn low on the forehead with a veil which draped over her hair in the back. She carried a white Bible and her corsage was purple orchids.

The bride's maid of honor, Miss Marjory Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers of Mill Valley, wore a light blue tailored suit with black accessories and her corsage was fashioned of gardenias. Miss Roger's father is the creator of the "Roger" cartoons seen in the "San Francisco Times," and Miss Roger was the roommate of the bride during her stay in college.

John Almada, local orchardist, acted as best man.

The bride's mother wore a white eyelet dress with white accessories, except for the hat which had a black, off-face veil. Her corsage was pink Cecil Breuner roses, bouvardia, and silver ribbon.

The briedgroom's mother, who made the trip from Fiatt, Ill., especially for the wedding, and who departed for home immediately after the reception, was attired in Navy blue crepe with white accessories and wore a corsage corresponding to the one worn by the bride's mother.

Mrs. John Chappell of Campbell, sang Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly", accompanied on the organ by Miss Marcelene Benech, who also played excerpts from Sigmund Romberg's "One Alone" as the bride and her attendants walked to the altar.

The altar was decorated with large baskets of greenery with a center piece of Shasta daisies and white tapers.

The bride is a graduate of Campbell Union High school, class of 1945, and has for the past eight months been a student at the University of California at Berkeley, California.

The bridegroom has spent the past two years in the United States Navy, of which ten and one-half months were spent overseas prior to V-J Day. He has been stationed in California since October of 1945. He is a graduate of Cuba Community High school, Cuba, Ill., and previous to his enlistment in the Navy was employed as a draftsman by the International Harvester Co. of Canton, Ill., and expects to resume the same position on his return home. He received his discharge at Shoemaker, California, on June 17, and he and his bride expect to make their home in Canton, Ill., after July 9.

Following the wedding ceremony, the large doors to the church parlors were opened and the young couple and their attendants, stood in the receiving line just inside the reception room, which was beautifully decorated with a profusion of pastel flowers. The long table was decorated with lace cloth and having a center piece of snap dragons and dahlias flanked by white tapers. At one end of the table was the silver coffee service, and at the other the bride's cake, which was three-tiered and decorated with white roses, silver leaves and berries and having a top decoration of a sailor and his bride, since the bridegroom wore his Navy uniform. Mrs. LBen Howard was responsible for the decorations.

After the refreshments were served the bride and groom, together with guests repaired to the church grounds where they took kodak pictures and where the guests threw, in lieu of rice, Navy beans and dry soup mix, which gave cause for great merriment.

John Almada "kindly" offered to take the bride and groom to the home of the bride, where they were to get their luggage for their trip to Santa Cruz, where they will have a four-day honeymoon, but alas, when the "kindly" Almada started the car there arose a terrible din as he had attached a wire strung with all the tin cans he had been saving just for the occasion.

After their honeymoon the young couple will return to the home of the bride for a few days, where they will make preparations for their journey to Illinois.

Mrs. Ora O. Johnson, the groom's mother, presided at the cake, and Mrs. Lloyd Smith of Los Gatos, poured.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Hemingray and daughter, Nancy, of San Francisco.

Campbell Man Takes Bride

In a recent double-ring ceremony at the West Side Nazarene chapel, Paul E. Marcuson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Marcuson of Campbell, took as his bride Miss Beverly Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller of San Jose. The Rev. Orville Potter officiated at the 7 p. m. rites before an altar decorated with white gladioli and daisies against a background of fern.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue suit with white accessories complimented by a corsage of orchids. Her maid of honor, Miss Bette Schrader, was attired in a pearl gray suit with blue accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias.

Perfoming the best man's duties was Keith E. Marcuson, brother of the benedict.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony with a three-tiered wedding cake centering the table.

San Jose will be the home of the newly married couple when they return from their wedding trip.

Wedding Anniversary Honored

The Hamilton Ave. home of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Lloyd was the scene last Sunday evening of a buffet supper party in honor of the first wedding anniversary of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Hicks, who returned recently from Miami, Fla. The young couple are now occupying the guest house at the Lloyd residence while Mr. Hicks attends Stanford University.

Dinner Honors Out-of-Town Guests

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Merrill were dinner hosts at the Tenessee Inn last Sunday in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Robinson of Merced. Sharing honors at the affair was Mr. Merrill's niece, Mrs. Helen Pascal Moore of Los Angeles.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea" (Habakkuk 2:14). This verse is the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on "God" for Sunday, July 7.

One Bible citation in the sermon is this from the 46th Psalm: "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth" (10).

A correlative citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads: "Science so reverses the evidence before the corporeal human senses, as to make this Scriptural testimony true in our hearts, 'The last shall be first, and the first last,' so that God and His idea may be to us what divinity really is and must of necessity be,—all-inclusive" (116).

San Jose Attorney Speaks At Grange Meeting

Meeting of Orchard City Grange was held in IOOF Hall in Campbell, Tuesday, June 25.

The speaker of the evening was John Burnett, a San Jose attorney. He spoke on political and economic observations he made when he was a lieutenant commander in the Navy in the South Pacific. He told about the workings of the British Dominion governments in Australia and New Zealand and how England is so dependent on her colonies. He pointed out the danger of our Nation pursuing a foreign policy which underwrites British and Dutch colonial imperialism. We should cultivate the friendship of the Oriental races because they seriously outnumber us.

Willard LeCroix, a former lieutenant in the Navy entertained the Grange with a very interesting group of songs and was accompanied by Mrs. Virginia Rutherford. The songs were "Invictus", "Hills of Home", and "The Green Eyed Dragon". Mr. LeCroix and Mr. Burnett happened to know each other in the Navy when both were stationed on New Caledonia.

The next meeting will be held July 9, and a very interesting program will be presented at that time.

Corsiglia Returns From Philadelphia

Victor Corsiglia Jr., popular student at Campbell High School, returned last week from the National American Red Cross convention at Philadelphia, Pa., where he went as Junior Red Cross delegate from the 72 schools in the San Jose Chapter area.

Eight hundred junior delegates attended the convention, holding their own meetings and their own social events. Outstanding speaker according to the local delegates was Livingston S. Blair, National Vice-chairman of Junior Red Cross who brought a firsthand picture of what the Juniors' assistance has meant to the boys and girls in France, Finland, and other countries he visited. A colored choir and the Philadelphia a cappella choir provided music and there was a semi-formal banquet and other entertainment, including watching the Phillies play the Pittsburg Pirates.

A side-trip to Washington, D. C., with a visit to the capitol and other historic sights completed the trip.

Parents of young Corsiglia are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Corsiglia of Stevens Creek Road.

Bringing the world's top-notch rodeo performers together to pit their skill against Cuff Burrell's wild Brahma steers and vicious broncs, this year's round-up promises to be the best yet presented by the Gymkhana town.

There will be 21 events in the one-day rodeo including wild horse racing, bareback riding, bronc riding, Brahma steer riding, team roping, calf roping and bull-dogging.

These, coupled with many more track and arena events, together with crowd-pleasing specialty acts will round out a complete afternoon's entertainment, and will cause Gilroy to be the focus point for rodeo fans for many miles around on July 21.
